

BADGERY PAVILION

BADGERY PAVILION

The Badger Pavilion is a pillarless, white-walled, marquee style building that's the perfect setting for large banquets, medium-sized exhibitions and product launches.

Offering a huge expanse of clear span space, its potential to accommodate the most creative and challenging of event concepts is enormous.

Adjacent to the pavilion are the Southee Gardens, which can be opened up to host an indoor/outdoor event or pre-show drinks.

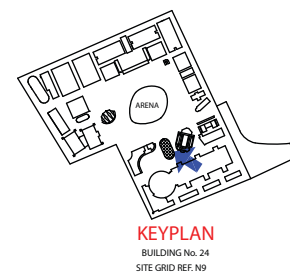

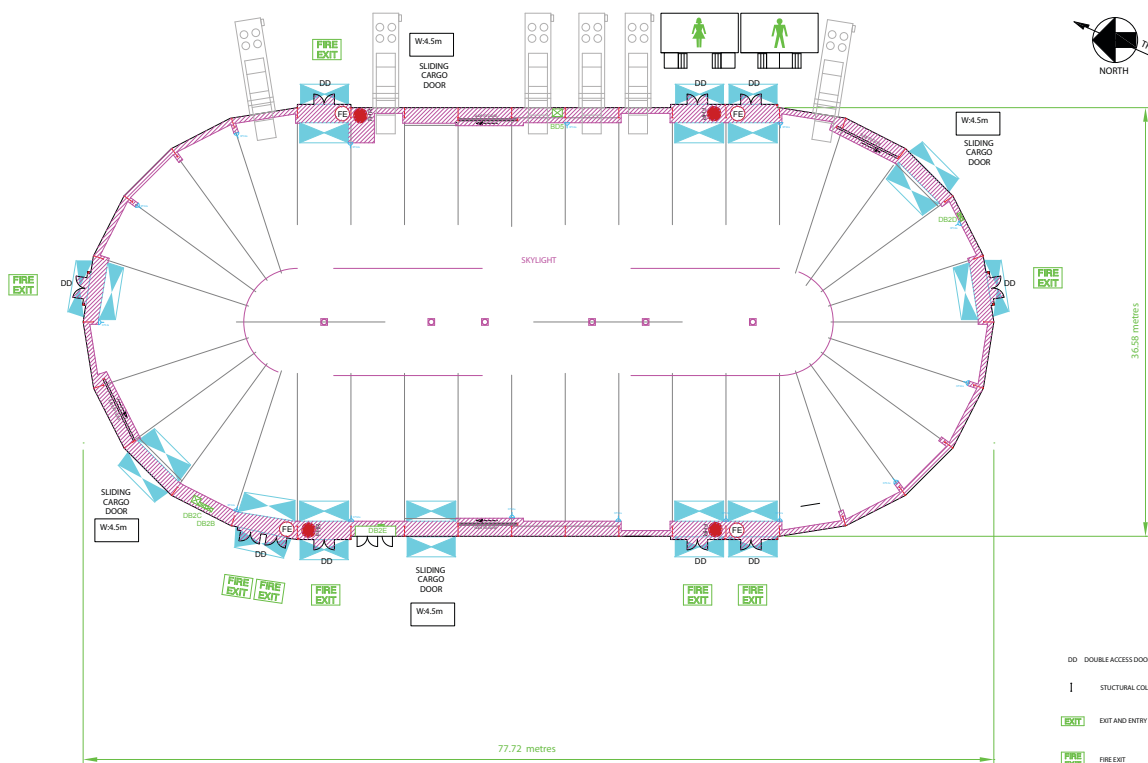

With an unparalleled choice of over 20 distinctive venues, Sydney Showground is the perfect location for an event of any size.
